

Freedmen's Relief Association,

No. 424 WALNUT STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

May 21st 1864.

My dear Garrison

92

Mrs McKim will leave

Philada next Thursday, expecting to take the Fall River boat that evening for Boston; if William will meet her on her arrival it will be a favor for which ^{we} shall all be grateful

I shall share with her, by your letter, in the happiness she will enjoy of mingling a few days in your family domesticities.

She expects to be gone a week; we can spare her a fortnight.

My letter in the Standard and has two typographical errors which may not be noticed but which annoy me. I find the "administra tive measures of Lord Brough" not the "Administration" measures "x" I said "It is faith in the living God"

- not "faith in the being of God"

You can't tell how it hurt me to collide with Phelps.

I have been so accustomed to shrink of him from the love, admiration & honor which I habitually cherish toward him, that words of mine not in praise of him came back upon my ear bank by.

I wish you a safe departure from your N. E. Convention. The Philistines will be upon you.

Best love to Mrs S. & all your household.

Ever yours,

Wm McKim
